Oh Sai, I had made a agreement to you in your court and in the womb that I would only worship you, even in the womb. But as soon as I came into the world, I forgot my agreement due to the desires of my mind and became engrossed in the worship of sensual pleasures and other ditties. When I met the Satguru, he bestowed his grace and knowledge upon me, and then the eyes of my inner knowledge opened. I remembered my agreement to you and began to see the sorrows of the death angle that would befall me for not keeping it.

As I listened to the wisdom from the Satguru's mouth, my body trembled and I was filled with devotion to the name Ram. The divine word manifested within me. A nectar sweeter than sugar began to drip from my mouth, and I kept drinking it.

The pleasure of this nectar satisfied my hunger and thirst, and I began to find happiness in every breath. I used to taste bitter in every breath, but now I started to taste sweet.

Just as a person's body trembles when they are exposed to extreme cold, and no matter how hard they try to hide it, the trembling is still visible, in this way my body was trembling due to the manifestation of the True Word, and I could see the trembling. No matter how hard I tried to hide it, the trembling could not be hidden. As Adi Satguru Sukhramji Maharaj says, this is how the Word entered my heart.
